"Old Man Winter" Shows His Face at Oregon College Campus

Approximately five inches of snow fell on the OCE campus the week-end of January 15, 16, and 17. "Mr. Campbell Hall" is shown while suffering from the cold. A lack of electricity Saturday morning and traveling difficulties resulted from the storm.

Students To Re-write ASOCE Constitution

A committee chairmaned by Gene Blair, with Gale Taylor, Wanda Nelson, and Lucy Goyak assisting, and with Dean Glogau as adviser, has been assigned the gigantic task of completely revamping the ASOCE Constitution. The document under which the student council is now working has been found to be obsolete. Many practices which have come into common usage by virtue of their practical value as used by student councils for the past several years have been discovered to be unconstitutional.

Complete New Structure

It is for this reason that a completely new structure for our student government is being formed. The main revisions will be to make the constitution more general so that changes will not have to be made each year. Some change will be made in the set-up of the student council, and the more specific details will be put into the by-laws which can be changed whenever necessary by the council.

This committee plans to complete the writing of the constitution by February 22, and copies of the proposed constitution will then be distributed to the students by March 1. A special election will be conducted some time around March 11 for the acceptance or rejection of the student body.

Clubs Will Give Aid To Chest X-ray Units

Staff and Key and Collecto Coeds, women's service organizations on the campus, will assist Miss Edith Olson, the college health nurse, when the state X-ray unit visits the OCE campus in the near future.

Dean Seavey Speaks

Miss Joan Seavey, dean of women, spoke to the Lebanon High School Girls' League on the afternoon of January 21.

'Familia Fiesta' Is Theme of Weekend

Gloria Riggs and Gale Taylor Are Now Completing Plans for Folks' Festival

by Marilyn Neill

"Familia Fiesta" provides the central theme for Folks' Festival week-end, January 29 and 30. Plans for the annual event are being completed this week under the direction of Gloria Riggs and Gale Taylor, co-chairmen.

A basketball game with EOCE and a sports dance in Maple hall are slated for Friday evening.

Parents will register in the faculty lounge in the basement of the library building from 9 a.m. to 12 noon on Saturday. Ann Hansen heads the registration committee. Assisting her will be Eldon Hickey, Edie Nielson, and Mrs. Floyd Albin, adviser.

Staff and Key and Collecto Coeds will furnish guides for campus tours from 10 to 11 a.m. John Davis is in charge of this portion of the program.

Talent Show To Be Given

A talent review will be presented by OCE students in the auditorium of Campbell hall at 11 a.m. Chairman for this activity is Elmer Sankey. He is assisted by Sylvia Leverich.

There will be a luncheon served in Todd hall on Saturday from 12:30 to 1:45 p.m. Students living in the dormitory who desire to eat with their parents may do so at no extra charge, if they schedule it with Mrs. Sloan.

The luncheon committee consists of Betty Shaw, chairman, Fern Wallace, Sherry Ripple, Stephany Hauck, Rita Jones, Glenna Parks, Aloha Taylor, Merle Soulez, and Mary Bemis.

Company Offers Insurance Plan To OCE Students

by Mickey Barnes

The Mutual Insurance Company of Omaha has presented a program to OCE for handling of student accident insurance. Under this program the students would handle the problem of selling insurance, probably during registration, and would make decisions on student claims. The student claims committee would have final say-so and would not be under the direction of Mutual of Omaha.

Rates Are $4.50 a Year

The rates are $4.50 a year if three-fourths of the student body enrolls in the program. The strictly accident insurance with $5000 maximum for life, or $1000 for one arm, $2000 for two arms, etc., might be of exceptional merit, especially to intramural athletics.

Also, it has been noted that if the student enrolls in the program for all three terms, he is also covered for the summer months, provided he is not covered by any industrial insurance.

Poll To Be Taken Today

An opinion poll relative to this accident insurance will appear in all student post office boxes Monday afternoon. The findings of this poll will aid the student council in deciding whether or not to initiate such a program.

Even though three fourths of the students do not enroll in the program, other rates slightly higher can be secured for those interested.

This program has been carried on at OSC and at the U of O and has proved quite successful.

Sig Ep Initiates Two

Sigma Epsilon Pi, women's scholastic honorary, formally initiated Betty Beigh, sophomore, and Bonnie Cameron, senior, on January 21, in Todd hall's music room. Any woman student receiving an accumulative grade-point average of 3.25 for two consecutive terms is eligible for membership.

Products on Exhibit

To commemorate the state of Oregon's birthday, February 14, a display will be on exhibit in the education museum in the library building. The display, exhibited by Mr. Charles Noxon of the social science department, will feature products and other items of interest.

Theme Set for All-Campus Sing

by Rita Dodson

"Rhapsody in Blue" has been set as the theme of the coming all-campus sing. Larry Sullivan and Glen Roby are directing arrangements and have set February 17 as a tentative date for the presentation.

Each living organization connected with the campus will present a group of singers numbering from eight to 20. All of the singing will be acappella and no mixed groups can be entered.

At present it is planned that the off-campus men and off-campus women, Arnold Arms, and West House will each present one group. Todd hall will sponsor from three to five groups and Vets' Village will sponsor two.

Trophy To Be Awarded

In keeping with the theme, each group will present a song with "Blue" in its title. A trophy will be awarded the winners and judges will be OCE music instructors.

No admission fee will be charged and a grand rehearsal is scheduled for February 6. The idea for the "Sing" came from similar ones planned at the U. of O. The student council hopes that this will become a yearly tradition with a revolving trophy being presented to the winning group each year.

Oregon Needs 1,600 More Teachers Per Year for the Next Seven Years

by Joan Roner

"Wanted: At least 1600 additional teachers per year for at least the next seven years, to teach the children in Oregon." This is not a want ad, but a plea expressed in the headlines of the January 3, 1954, Eugene Register-Guard. Statistics have also been published by the State Department in Salem, showing the need for 12,000 additional teachers by 1961, a number nearly equal to all the educators now working in the state.

Two major reasons for this demand are immigration into the state from other states, and more especially, the Oregon birth rate which has increased yearly since World War II. The 1951 birth rate was one-half again as much as that of 1940.

Other notable factors are death, retirement, and resignation of teachers. Also, low birth rate during the depression has created a demand for workers in all fields, especially in education where a rising birth rate directly affects the profession.

All of Oregon's teacher training programs will graduate 300 elementary teachers during this year, but this won't even take care of Portland's 1954 need. Another factor to consider is that many education graduates will marry, move out of the state or go into some other field.

Opportunities In Oregon

Last year's teachers' salaries averaged $4000 in Oregon, $4225 in Washington, and $4600 in California. Oregon rates eighth in (Continued on page two)

ALL-CAMPUS SING NEEDS YOU!

Do you like to sing? Then the all-campus sing is especially for you. The deadline is rapidly approaching, and everyone's help will be needed to make this a successful event.

All you have to do is get together with a bunch of your friends (at least eight and not more than 20) and work up any acappella number. One number is all you need to have ready.

The night of performance is February 17, and a rehearsal is scheduled for February 16. This still gives everyone a chance to form a group if he wishes, and work on some appropriate number.

The winner of this event will be awarded a trophy. Why not make an attempt to win this trophy for the living organization of which you are a resident? —F.F.

Over 100 Attend Yma Sumac Concert at OSC

Over 100 OCE students attended the concert at Corvallis last Tuesday evening, January 19.

The Corvallis Civic Music Association presented Yma Sumac and company in a concert in Gill coliseum. The concert was directed and produced by her husband, Moises Vivanco.

Yma Sumac sang the songs of her people, centuries-old melodies from the uppermost reaches of the Andes, arranged especially for her by her husband-accompanist.

Her striking costumes were authentic Quechan garb, and her music was produced on native instruments.

This concert was the sixth in a series presented by the Corvallis Music Association.

Canterbury Club Meets

Reverend and Mrs. Perry Smith of St. Mary's, Eugene, will be the guests of the Canterbury club of St. Hilda's for the usual pot-luck supper at 5:30 p.m. to-night, January 25, at Brainerd hall. Afterwards Father Smith will speak on the meaning of "Liturgical Worship" and will lead the discussion. The club cordially invites everyone to "come and bring a friend."

More Teachers Needed

the national average for teachers' salaries, but has the highest average standard of living in the union.

Oregon also has a higher standard of teaching than most other states, including Washington and California. Oregon has less crowded rooms; certification standards, classroom equipment and teacher benefits are also kept at a higher level than most states.

Despite the snowballing problems in public education, Mrs. Gubser, assistant superintendent of public instruction in Oregon, noted that there are no classrooms closed due to a lack of teachers, at least to the knowledge of state officials.

Some teachers who don't meet the requirements of certification in Oregon are hired on emergency certificates until the supply of qualified teachers increases. This percentage has declined, for many of these emergency teachers are working toward completion of their education.

Anyone further interested in the opportunities of teacher training should read the very recent publication by the Oregon State Board of Higher Education, "The Future of Oregon Lies With Those Who Teach."

15 Delegates Wanted For Model United Nations Conference

The fourth annual Western Regional Conference of the Model United Nations will be held at UCLA during the week of March 25, 26, and 27. OCE has been invited to attend this conference, and it has been suggested that there be at least 15 delegates sent.

Model United Nations conferences are held each year in the different regions of the United States, each a replica of the U.N. Student delegates from about 100 colleges and universities in the 11 western states, Hawaii and Alaska will represent the actual policies of the individual member countries of the United Nations. OCE will portray the country of Peru.

Any OCE student is eligible to be a delegate. Those who are interested are urged to contact Harry Pease, post office box 307, for further information.

Tests for Teaching Positions Announced

The United States Civil Service has announced an examination for probational appointment of elementary teacher, for duty in schools of the Bureau of Indian Affairs. The schools in this civil service region are located in Alaska, Oregon, and Montana.

There are a number of opportunities available in Alaska for married couples who are both qualified to teach. Furnished quarters are provided at most schools at low rental cost.

Anyone interested in these opportunities should get further information at the Lamron office in the CH basement immediately, since recruitment starts this spring.

Wesley Group To Meet

Wesley Foundation will meet as usual on Wednesday, January 27, from 6:30 to 8 p.m. in the Monmouth Elementary school's music room. This will be the third in a series of meetings on "The Relation of Religion to Public Education."

Dr. H. Kent Farley, associate professor of education, will serve as resource person for the discussion. Everyone is welcome to attend.

D'OCE-do GOES TO McLAREN

Twenty-four OCE students went to McLaren Boys School at Woodburn Friday, January 22, to teach folk and square dances. This is the second time this year the d'OCE-do club has presented a program of this type.

Around Todd's Halls

by Carolyn Jones

Here we go for another round of weekly news from dear old Todd.

Is our face red? Last week we overlooked a very important item. It seems that Andrea Bailey received her engagement ring and we left it out of the column. Our sincerest apologies, Andy, that we missed it, and our very best wishes!

§ § § §

This, as you probably know, is a school to train people for the teaching profession. Some of us might become college professors and acquire the "absent minded professor" title. However, you don't have to be a college prof to be absent minded. Take the case of the letter written by a service man addressed to Todd Hall, Monmouth, Oregon. That's all! He forgot to put on the girl's name. This might be called the case of the absent minded PFC.

§ § § §

The monthly birthday party was held on January 20 honoring Phyllis Anderson, Bernadine Bergstrom, Helen Booth, Elizabeth Guyton, Irene Kelleher, Shirley Phelps, Katherine Seifert, Nancy Lou Clark and Mary Gordon, Toddlites who had birthdays in January.

Another new member of Todd hall is Jeanne Lauman, sophomore from Marion. It's nice to have you here again, Jeanne!

That's all for now. The time for the deadline is here. See you next week.

Arnold Arms News

by Robert Krebs

As you all know for the last two weeks A.A. has been testing the cooperative system, which is much like family style. At the house meeting this week the fellows decided that there was a need to go back to the old system. Since the other system did not call for house officers, they were elected this week. Earl Hendrickson was elected president; Dale Long was elected vice-president; and Richard Haury was elected secretary-treasurer.

• • • • •

The results of the ping-pong tournament will not be ready this week since there has been a shortage of equipment.

• • • • •

After the Yma Sumac concert last Tuesday night some of the fellows were trying out their singing voices. The singers were not too bad, but a person trying to sleep surely didn't enjoy Darrel Lunda gargling in five octaves.

Vets' Village News

by Jim Riggs

Anyone driving by the Village this past week might have thought that either they were on the Alaskan highway or that there was an acute housing shortage. The reason: a huge igloo capable of accommodating several adults that some of the fellows built last Saturday morning. Although it was very well-constructed, no Eskimo families came to claim occupancy and now only a pile of snow and the framework remains.

Numerous snowmen, built by the children, also added to the winter scene in the Village.

The Village intramural basketball squad now has a 1-1 record after defeating the Independents 41 to 31. Members of the team are Art Glogau, Jim Laswell, Jim Hall, Jim Riggs, John Pizzuti, Don Kipp, John Woods, and Harvey Geoman.

We are very proud of two members of the Village, Ray Meyers and John Pizzuti, who were recently named to "Who's Who." Congratulations, fellows!

Second Assembly for Winter Term Features Sculptor, Duke Art

by Sherry Ripple

Duke Art, nationally famous sculptor, presented to OCE students what he calls "The Science of Sculptural Manipulation," in an assembly on January 20, sponsored by National School Assemblies.

Using no tools other than his hands, clay, a table and a backboard, Duke modeled the faces of a circus clown, an Indian, a mother-in-law, and traced the development of a baby he named "Nellie" from the time of her birth until she had a bad toothache at the age of 10. Each was done in a matter of seconds, much to the amazement of the audience.

He explained how anyone can do sculpting with the use of very simple tools such as an orange stick, a hairpin, and an inkwell. Then, while explaining the procedure of shaping a face with clay, he deftly modeled the face of the devil.

Pat Holman Poses

For a bit of on-the-spot sculpting, he chose to make a clay model of the face of Pat Holman, who was selected at random from the audience to sit for him on the stage.

Duke Art, who is a comedian as well as a sculptor, has appeared with Dean Martin and Jerry Lewis, Frankie Laine and Peggy Lee throughout his tours of the United States.

Crimson "O" Meeting Features Talent Show

A talent show was presented at the monthly meeting of Crimson "O" on Wednesday, January 20, in the Campbell hall auditorium.

Dick Harry and Elmer Sankey met in a cafe in Portland one cold evening in 1955. Both had graduated from OCE and were teaching in different parts of the state.

After some trouble with the blonde waitress, Elaine Rice, Dick and Elmer began reminiscing about old times at OCE. The main topic was the Crimson "O" talent show that had been given in January of 1954. As the two recalled the numbers, the acts were presented to the audience.

Variety of Talent Displayed

The numbers were Ruby Taylor, piano solo, Impromptu No. 4 in A-flat Minor by Schubert; Sandra Bliven, ballet, "The Sugar Plum Fairy"; Bev Warren and Andrea Bailey, piano duet, "Two Guitars."

Helen Booth, reading, "Epaminondus"; Dick Harry and Elmer Sankey, vocal duet, "The Poor Ole Slave"; Pat Blair, vocal solo, "Stranger in Paradise"; Ron Smith, tap dance; and Sylvia Leverich, piano solo, "Nola," were other numbers.

Accompanists for the singers and dancers were Mary Bemis, Sylvia Leverich and Ruby Taylor.

A short business meeting followed the talent show with Elmer Sankey presiding.

Mock Interview Took Place of FTA Meeting

Mr. Harry Johnson, assistant superintendent of schools in Salem, conducted an interview with Gale Taylor in the FTA meeting on Thursday, January 2. This was only a mock interview, for the interviews of this type are usually held in privacy.

Dr. Walter Snyder of Salem was not able to be present because he was unexpectedly called to attend an emergency meeting, and Mr. M. C. Huff of Lincoln county did not arrive due to weather conditions. However, everyone went away enlightened on the subject of interviews. Many interesting points were brought out in the question and answer period.

The next FTA meeting will be held on February 2. At that time the discussion will be an teaching ethics.

Co-Weds Meet Tues.

The Co-Wed club will meet at 248 Gwinn street in Monmouth on Tuesday, January 26. All wives of students are invited to attend.

Violinist Featured In Salem Concert

Isaac Stern, world renowned master of the violin, will appear in concert at the Salem High auditorium Thursday, Jan 28, at 8 p.m. as the second artist to be sponsored by the 1953-4 Willamette University Distinguished Artist series. Tickets for the Salem appearance can be purchased in advance at Stevens & Son jewelers in Salem or at the door. Reserved seats will be sold at $3 and $2.40.

Currently featured in the 20th Century-Fox production, "Tonight We Sing," highly acclaimed movie of the life of S Hurock which appeared in Salem during the Christmas season, the violinist is no new figure to movie patrons who heard him on the sound-track of the film "Humoresque." Also known to radio, television and record fans, his most recent list of best-selling recordings include pressings of the Brahms and Sibelius Violin Concertos with the Royal Philharmonic Orchestra conducted by Sir Thomas Beecham.

Stern is the only American violinist in the last decade who has risen from the ranks to the exclusive hierarchy of top-flight fiddlers. His itinerary lists more than 125 concerts and covers at least three continents a season. He has been acclaimed in Europe, South America, and Israel as well as the United States.

Performing on his priceless 250 year old Gaurnerius, Stern received the acclaim of Hilmar Grondahl of the Portland Oregonian when he appeared in Portland. "Never before has there been a comparable excitement arising out of a little wooden box with four strings," he reported.

lodging during Folks' Festival must be made with Mrs. Sloan at her dormitory office by Friday noon, January 29. A service charge of 50 cents will be made for parents reserving rooms in the dormitory.

The Mothers' club and the Dads' club will meet following the luncheon on Saturday afternoon.

Presents Fashion Show

At 3 p.m. a tea and style show will be held for the parents in Maple hall. Betty Beigh is in charge of this function, with Dot Swigart serving as her assistant and Miss Virginia Moses as adviser. Other members of the committee are Joyce Yuraneck, Sharon Strand, and Eric Jacobson.

A "smoker" will be held in the gymnasium from 4 to 5 p.m. Bill Arnold is chairman of this activity.

Pep Club Drill Team To March

The Pep club with a 28 girl drill team under the direction of Darlene Kinslow, Pep club president, and Dr. Anne Millan, will present the half-time entertainment for the basketball game with EOCE Saturday night.

This performance is the first for the year and will be done in total darkness. All formations are self-lighted with flashlights. As a special feature, Gary Stephenson will be twirling his baton.

Other committees functioning for Folks' Festival week-end are: invitations, Helen Booth, Elaine Irwin; publicity, John Piz-zuti, Frances Furer; programs, Moira Lane.

Following the game a sports dance will be held in Maple hall. Chairman Don and Fran Brostrom are engaging a small band for this final Folks' Festival event.

Convention Firemen Will Be Entertained

Crimson "O," Todd hall, and the OCE men's quartet will provide entertainment at the firemen convention to be held in Monmouth on January 29. Ralph Dutoit, Monmouth fire chief, is to be convention host.

Tall Techmen Wreck Wolves

The host OTI Owls handed the visiting Oregon College Wolves a terrific slap in the face Friday night in gaining a 73-53 victory. The taller Techmen took command of the contest with a third quarter spurt and then coasted on to victory.

It was a close battle all the way for the first half with OTI leading at the intermission 34-33. The hosts had dunked 15 out of 32 attempts from the floor, while the Wolves had a 14 out of 30 record.

Owls Roar in Third Period

Oregon Tech continued the terrific pace at the opening of the second half of the struggle, but the OC crew couldn't bag more than one field goal all period. Don Sutphin sparked the Owls' big 22-point quarter which saw the Wolfpack contribute but three gift tosses in addition to the lone field goal.

Frank Grove, with 11, and Bobby Frantz and Larry Chamberlain, with 10 tallies each, paced the Wolves' losing efforts. Don Sutphin bagged 23 for OTI. Oreg. Tech 73 53 Oreg. College

Whelps Tripped Thrice in Week Of Hoop Action

Gene Owen's OC junior varsity took it on the chin on three successive occasions during the past week, losing to Robert's, Salem YMCA, and Sweet Home High school. The trio of losses leave the whelps with a 3 and 5 season mark.

ROBERT'S BUMP JV'S

Joe Robert's intramural team, with a sprinkling of other squad members, jumped to an early lead over the JV's in last Friday's preliminary game to the OC-OTI game and led all the way. Robert's team proved too big and too fast for the JV's as they came out on the heavy end of a 44-38 score. Charlie Harris and Gene Lebold led the Robert's with 12 and nine points respectively. Dick Jones led the junior varsity with nine.

The Oregon College JV's invited a Salem City League team over for the Saturday night preliminary and had their regrets for their hospitality after the hassle. The tall, straight-shooting YMCA boys rolled over the Whelps to the tune of 84 to 41. The JV's played a good game, but the Salem club was one of the best seen on the home court

A stunned band of Oregon College Wolves took it on the chin the second night in a row Saturday as the sharpshooting Owls snared a 77-51 victory. By virtue of the twin losses suffered by the Wolfpack, the idle Mountaineers moved into the top spot in the Oregon Collegiate Conference hoop chase and the home-town crew fell into a second place deadlock with the Techmen.

Tech Takes Early Lead

The anything-but-hot OC squad was in the contest about 10 minutes and it was a sad story from there on in. Tech jumped to a 15-11 first canto lead and then swelled it to 40-23 at halftime.

Things were leveled a wee bit in the third chapter as the southern team racked up 20 tallies to 19 for OC. The Owls rolled on in the last quarter and with the loss of guard Charlie Pinion on five personals, the OC hopes went down the drain.

Chamberlain Leads Wolf Scorers

Don Sutphin again topped all scorers with a second 23 point performance. Forward Larry Chamberlain contributed 16 in the cause of the Wolves. Pinion followed with 10, eight on gift tosses.

The Wolves return after their southern sojourn to do battle with the invading Eastern Oregon Mountaineers in a pair of week-end battles.

PEASE PORRIDGE

Dr. Livingston, Messrs. Grove, Frantz, Pinion, Chamberlain, Davis, McKenzie and hoop associates turned in bang-up jobs in their opening OCC cage battles. Twas a smooth working, spirited outfit that left little doubt in the minds of the home town rooters of the place of the Wolves in the 1954 hoop chase.

The "Bouncing Buckshot," Frank Grove, turned in a terrific performance Friday night and did himself proud again the second evening. Steady Bob Frantz contributed generously in both tussles and along with captain, playmaking guard, Charlie Pinion, kept the boys moving over the rough spots. A couple of scrappy gentlemen, Larry Chamberlain and Darrell Davis, turned in some excellent ballhawking and rebounding and a good share of points. Don McKenzie handled a good sixth man role. Some more good reserve strength was animated by Jerry Bowman, Bob Wilder, Fred Stanley, Jim Rice, Dick Jones, and Ray Hubbard, back after a year lay-off.

By the time we go to press the OTI series down south will be history and, we trust, favorable history. Favorable history might well be concluded as a split with the pesky Owls. It's mighty tough to beat any Tech team in their home roost because of higher altitude and visiting team mortality rate. However, should our favorites return Sunday afternoon with a pair of wins, we wouldn't be made, and the Mountaineers had best watch-out.

Those Mountaineers will be stalking into town this coming week-end and the elongated crew will bring with them the classification of pre-season favorites to cop the bunting. The results of the two court battles may well decide the title right quick.

'Hot-Ten-Tots' To Play Here February Third

According to an announcement by the OCE athletic department, the "Hot-Ten-Tots," claimants of the colored world's basketball championship, will play the OCE Wolves in a special exhibition game on February 3 at 8 p.m. in the OCE gym.

Appearing with the "Hot-Ten-Tots" are several outstanding stars of other years including Rog Harris, All-American from Boston university, and Lanky Davis, all-conference guard from Morgan college.

This game replaces the previously scheduled game with the Roamer Girls on January 27, which was cancelled due to a serious automobile accident in which several members of the Roamer Girls' team were injured.

A pre-game activity, and half-time program has also been planned to provide the crowd with a full evening of entertainment.

West house swept into the league leadership Thursday evening by virtue of an upset victory over Wick's 47-37 in the game of the year thus far. A half game behind the W.H. crew with a stainless mark are the Ramblers who bumped Arnold Arms 68-47. Roberts' picked up their first win of the campaign in bouncing the Independents 61 to 37.

Paul Hamilton sparked the West house squad in their up-ending job in dumping in 22 tallies. With both clubs using zone defenses, the Wicks' crew moved to a 18-15 halftime edge. Midway through the third stanza W. H. moved into the lead to stay and pulled to a 33-27 third period lead. Ed Montgomery paced the losers with nine. Pep Easom bagged eight for the W.H. team.

The Ramblers had an easy go of it in moving over the Arnold Arms crew. The men from A.A. employed a pair of female hoopsters who contributed no little to the A.A. cause. High for the winners was Bill DeArmond who potted 21 points for the evening. Ron Rainsbury followed him with 16 points. Norman Robinson led the losers with 15 points.

Gene Lebold bagged the week's high with 31 points as Roberts' romped over the Independents 61-37. The boys finally hit full stride in their campaign tussle in handing the Indeps. their second loss. Bobby Lange tallied 13 for the losers.

He was one of those tourists who liked to brag about the number of miles traveled in a day. As the evening wore on they passed motel after motel with the "No Vacancy" sign out.

Finally the little woman remarked sweetly, "I know we'll find one soon dear, people are starting to get up!"

Overcoming a 9-12 halftime deficit, the Ball Babies dropped the Sharpies by a 22-21 count in the opening action of the WRA intramural league play. A last-minute gift toss decided the close tussle.

Kaye LeFrancq scored 11 points to pace the winners, while Mary Gordon tallied nine in a losing cause.

Mac's Place will meet the Sharpies and the Keyhole Kids will go against Six Select on Monday evening. Mac's place will do battle with someone on Thursday night.

GIRLS ATTEND WRA MEET

OCE was represented at a meeting of WRA's and WAA's by Nancy Hildreth, Frances Brostrom, Opal Bradshaw, Bernie Bergstrom and Pat Blair. The meeting was held at Linfield college January 15 and 16. A state athletic federation of college women was set up and a constitution adopted.

Other colleges attending were Lewis and Clark, Clark college, Marylhurst, University of Oregon, Pacific university, Oregon State college, Portland State, Willamette university and Linfield college.

During recreation two new games, floor tennis and wisket, were learned. Wisket is played similar to LaCrosse.

Next year's convention will be held at Oregon State college from which campus the president will be chosen.

Bill Arnold Paces Intramural Scoring

Bill Arnold, despite the fact that he was held to three points in his last outing, continued to hold the intramural scoring lead for games through last Thursday. The Wick's forward has 53 tallies in three games.

Nearest man to Arnold is Gene Lebold, who potted 31 points last week to make a two-game total of 42. Elmer Summerfield, Arnold's team mate, ranks third with 40. Ed Montgomery and Don DeArmond round out the top five with 31 apiece. Ed makes the third Wick's man on the first five and Don plays for the Ramblers.

Arnold is tops in field goals with 23, while Don Wickstrand heads the free throw department with nine.
